

FROM GRACE TO GROWTH

A GATHERING FOR WOMEN
april 24, 2010

God's abundant grace pours on us when we recognize our need for Jesus as our Savior and ask Him to be Lord of our lives for the first time. As we begin to develop a relationship with Him and experience His amazing love, we start to recognize ways that God, in His mercy, is refining us to be more like His Son.

In this refining process, God challenges us and empowers us to grow by showing us our part—whether that means continuing to turn away from sin toward obedience, engaging in spiritual disciplines, or responding in some other way that He reveals to us.

From Grace to Growth will give you a chance to praise Him for His never-ending grace and will provide you an opportunity to respond to His leading by participating in the work He has already begun in you. God's work will be done, and He graciously gives each one of His children an invitation to play a role in it. Join us as we seek to embrace His love and to experience His calling for our lives!

Come to this special one-day event, invite others, and experience the beauty of joining God on a journey—From Grace to Growth.

speakers

Susie Larson

Speaker, author, and radio host • Andover, Minnesota

Susie speaks to thousands of women around the world at conferences and inspires others through her blog with her trademark humor and enthusiasm. She has a passion for sharing the love of a Savior who will never let us go. Susie has authored several books and numerous articles and has appeared as a guest on radio and TV programs such as Midday Connection, Family Life Today,

Chris Fabry Live!, The Harvest Show, and the LIFE Today show with James and Betty Robison. She also serves as a guest host for Along the Way, a Christian radio talk show (AM Faith 900). Susie is a member of the Advanced Writers and Speakers Association, Women in Christian Media, and serves on the board of directors for the Christian Authors Network. In addition, she and her husband, Kevin, have represented International Justice Mission's concerns in meetings with Congress that focused on ending international human trafficking and slavery. She and Kevin have three grown sons.

Chrissy Toledo

Chicago Tabernacle Co-Founder and Choir Director • Chicago, Illinois

Saved from the life of a prodigal by the fervent prayers of her father's congregation in New York City, Chrissy understands firsthand the power of prayer. "It's not always immediate," she says, "but, like my dad, just remains steadfast." After her conversion, Chrissy began her service to Christ as the leader of a 100-voice choir at a New England Bible college. She continues to use her musical gifts by directing the choir at the Chicago Tabernacle, a ministry she and her husband, Al, pioneered on the city's North Side. Her great passion is helping to affect the hearts and minds of listeners with music that feeds their souls. In particular, she encourages young people to discover a personal relationship with Jesus Christ using the medium of music. Chrissy has had many opportunities over the years to share her remarkable testimony at various conferences. She and Al have three children.

Liz Curtis Higgs

Author and speaker • Louisville, Kentucky

A prolific author with 27 published books to her credit, Liz has brought the vital message of God's grace to millions of readers around the world. Her well-known Bad Girls of the Bible series takes a fresh look at the lives of some of the most infamous women in the Bible. Liz has also crafted a series of best-selling historical novels that reset the biblical stories of women like Rebekah and Naomi in eighteenth-century

Scotland. One of these novels, Whence Came a Prince, received a 2006 Christy Award for Best Historical Fiction. Liz has penned five books for young children, edited two newsletters—Encouragement to Go! and O Gentle Reader!—and was a columnist for Today's Christian Woman magazine. In addition, Liz is a gifted speaker who has presented to audiences in all 50 states and throughout the world. She is one of only 32 women to have been named to the National Speakers Association's Speaker Hall of Fame. Liz and her husband, Bill, have two college-age children.
